1. The Debtor sold all assets at the public auction sales pursuant to the terms detailed in the Assented to Motion for Order Authorizing the Debtor to Sell Personal Property and Equipment Free and Clear of all Liens, Claims, Interests and Encumbrances, the lease for the premises is rejected together with a release of all claims the Landlord had against the Debtor (“Motion to Sell”). [Doc. No. 213, 218].

2. In light of the cessation of operations and the sale of the assets, the Debtor did not seek to extend the use of the Motion for Cash Collateral as required by the Order entered on June 30, 2020 and does not presently seek the use of cash collateral. [Doc. No. 196].

3. Also, in light of the completion of the auction at the Assembly Square location and as part of the consideration of the landlord who was successful as the “stalking horse bidder”, the Debtor withdrew the Motion to Extend Time to Assume or Reject the Lease for the premises located at Assembly Row. [Doc. No. 221, 223].

4. The Debtor intends to timely file a Plan of Liquidation to address the disposition of the proceeds which were generated by the sale of the assets after receipt of the accounting by the Auctioneer.
